

Weddings at Chatelherault Hunting Lodge and Country Park, Hamilton, Scotland

Picture yourself as your fairytale begins...

Picture your wedding taking place right at the heart of Scotland's rich heritage, to add splendour and magic to your wedding vows.

Imagine arriving at Chatelherault, a beautiful Georgian 18th Century Hunting Lodge, built for James 5th Duke of Hamilton (who also held the French title 'Duc de Châtellerauld') set on a hill amidst magnificent landscaped gardens and ancient woodland.

Dreams can come true, as today Chatelherault serves as one of the country's most prestigious and elegant venues for civil, religious or humanist marriage ceremonies, renewal of vows, or a civil partnership.

Your wedding party would have exclusive use of the West Wing at Chatelherault, comprising of the Duke's grand private Banqueting Room, and The Duke and Duchess Rooms, each beautifully decorated with symbols of hunting and feasting.

Your ceremony would take place within the Banqueting Room: which is graced with ornate plasterwork, high ceilings and tall romantic Venetian windows accentuating the graceful proportions of the room, with spectacular views across the Clyde Valley. The rear Venetian windows open out into elegant landscaped 'Parterre' Gardens, an outstanding backdrop creating endless opportunities to capture your perfect photographs.

This 18th century hidden gem is situated on an eye catching hilltop south of Hamilton, an unusual yet quiet venue only minutes from the M74 and railway network.

There is no minimum number of guests, and our maximum is sixty (Wedding party is additional) for the ceremony.

We can offer dining for a maximum of fifty seated guests within the Banqueting Hall.

To ensure the personal touch and exclusive use for your wedding party, there is only one ceremony available each day.

Chatelherault is the ideal setting for your special day and its lavish settings are sure to impress friends and family alike. You and your guests can expect to be treated like royalty, and you'll be assured of a warm welcome, and every assistance possible in planning your day.

All of our prices are inclusive of VAT so you can be assured that there are no hidden costs.
